Editor's note

Some scenes do not exactly match the selected invocations. We have indeed taken a few liberties, preferring to work from the meaning of the invocation, rather than to illustrate it word for word.

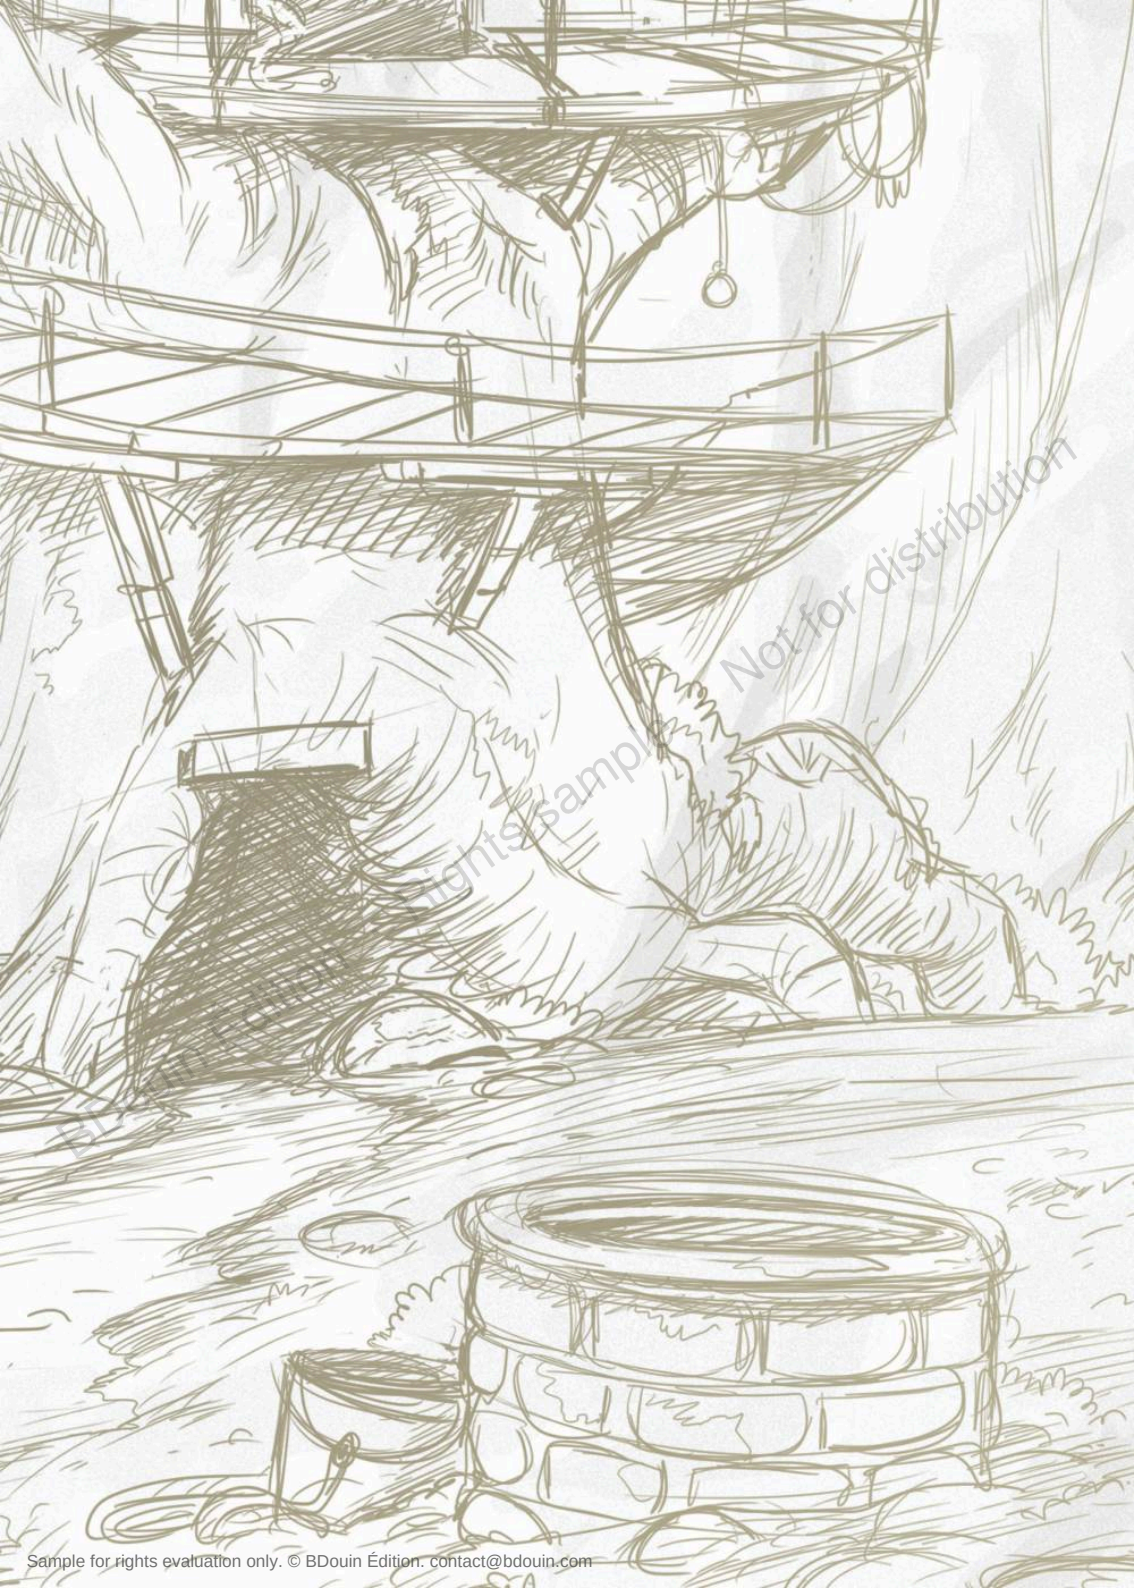

The reader should therefore be careful not to always compare the image (left) with the text (right).

Some situations in the images also don't necessarily have a direct connection to the Sunnah.

That being said ... Happy reading !

Example of an invocation to say when one hears the rooster's crow

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ مِنْ فَضْلِكَ

The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah upon him) said :

«If you hear the crow of a rooster, ask Allah for his bounty for it has seen an angel and if you hear the braying of an ass, seek refuge in Allah for it has seen a devil.»

- Reported by Al-Bukhari and Muslim -

Allâhumma innî as'aluka min fadhlika.
